Modern Dervish

I play a writer and filmmaker who is willing to do anything to get his movie made where he lives in Lowell MA called pantycult.The basic script and outline were inspired by John Waters Movie. Using friends and incorporating local public figures in the production from Lowell, Boston,and surrounding area while trying to get known celebrities including Larry Flynt and Andrew Dice Clay among others. Adjusting the story outline as I go along to acommidate all the roles while sticking to the original storyline. Send outlines to perceptive people who might be interested. It was 30 years since the idea, concept, outline whatever you want to call it was originally developed.
Not since the Producers has such a production been mounted.
Cameo appearances from well-known people promoting the movie project. "Make Lowell Smart Again"

I hope to do the best with what I've learned in the world and from the people I've been connected with in life

Made an effort to inform me by reading interesting books and about people. I'm lucky to have intellectual curiosity.

Four things people need in their temperament.
A sense of proportion.A sense of humility.
A sense of dignity and a sense of humor.
And the ability to learn from mistakes.

Poverty is not a trait in character. It is created by circumstances

Help the most vulnerable people

You should think about everything you say not say everything you think

I see beauty in ugly things

I've developed and operate a multi-platform content generated distribution network of original art, music, film, writings, and performance.

I'll do anything to be left alone when I'm working.

Because I have such a great amount of material people may be overwhelmed by the volume.
Everyone feels better when the underdog does well.

I've been most inspired by a musician you may not have heard of named Frank Zappa and bands like The Fugs or King Crimson.

I've never defined myself by whatever creative posture was popular at the time.

Excellence. Some excel because they are designed to.
Most excel because they are determined to

When a team of dedicated individuals makes a commitment to act as one the sky is the limit,

He is basically taking a flame thrower to a knife fight.

It's not about facts its about focus and attention.

We're spring loaded

Poverty is not a trait in character. It is created by circumstances.

The angel seeks light. The beast seeks the dark.

4000 Studies say that global warming is man-made.

He has a most remarkable unsophisticated view of the world outside of his head.

No friend has done me a favor or no enemy I didn't pay in full

A big life is to be connected to all things possible.
You have to be emotionally connected.

The first part of life is building the outside world.
The second part of life should be finding the cause.

You widen your repertoire of emotions by having better relationships, listening to music, reading literature, and suddenly you are more emotionally sensitive to people, you're willing to be vulnerable,you're able to slow down.

Leisure is not about playing golf. It's about having your mind go slowly enough so the world can be invited into you. Getting your mind slow enough is a challenge.

Making commitments to things outside of yourself.
The key is making long term commitments.

Never use a large word when a small word will do.

The idea that there is a core piece of yourself that with every decision you make you can change that piece of yourself to either something that is holier or more degraded.

People are into manners. They are attracted by a revolution in manners more than a revolution in policies.

He took the style of professional wrestling and he brought it to politics.
He's polluting the cultural atmosphere.
He's offered us a different and uglier form of masculinity.

He's confidence but he backs it up with actual knowledge and substance and integrity and humility. He sees the world as a conversation. He has grace and elegance.
To him its about ideas. To others, it's about themselves.

The androids had become obsolete.
They were great for the '80s but.

Vito Vasilini is the angel of death for that old structure for the androids because the old structure is gone and its never coming back.

After a scientific paradigm collapse, you get the period where you get all these theories floating all over the place and eventually one of them rises. It will be a time of intense creativity.

It's because of the stress of globalization, the stress of the technological change, the rise religious fundamentalism, the rise of ethnic nationalism,

All these things are making the world an uglier place then it looked like in the 1990s.

There are three historical movements in this country.
There the conservative movement that believes in limited government of enhanced freedom. There is a liberal movement that believes in using government to enhance equality. The third tradition believes in limited but energetic government to enhance social mobility.

It helps to have the emotional capacity to complete and a curious mind.

Fuse yourself with another person, another identity.

The hedgehog knows one thing. The fox knows many things.

I know its meant to capture a reflective moment.

The most unhappy people in the world are the ones that see life as dripping by.

They ain't doing it for Shits and Giggles that cost extra.

I see no benefit to further deepen this topic.

Flugnoidism has always been recognized to play a different role. It's about social entertainment.
Its what's missing from the social structure.

He was graceful. He was charming. He was funny as well as provocative

Judge people by their individual worth and human dignity.

The web of our life is a mingled yarn. Good and Ill together.

Depression is the inability to construct a future.

Lenny Hall is an original voice not only in music, art, film, and writing but also in theater and improvisation.
His studio and creative programs help provide a safe and happy space.

What makes us Human? What differences us from insects is we have consciousness, an awareness of what we are thinking and what we are doing. Consciousness provides a context or meaning for our actions. If that part of you doesn't exist you are functioning much like an insect.When you just act instinctually without thought or meaning.